A MESSAGE FROM PRESIDENT GREGG WISTON

Chaverim,

As I approach the end of my first year as President of Temple Torat Emet, it is a good time to reflect on how far we have come together as a congregational family. Since the inception of Covid, we have worked diligently as a team: clergy, staff, and volunteers to keep, you, our valuable congregants safe. Throughout the pandemic we continued to offer daily minyan and Shabbat Services virtually. Now that the building is once again open, it is wonderful to see an ever-increasing number of congregants choosing to come and daven together in person. For those of you who still choose to attend virtually for personal reasons, I understand. We hope at some point in the near future the Temple will be able to offer food at our Friday, Kabbalat Shabbat Oneg and Saturday Shabbat Kiddush.

I can honestly say that in my 20 years as a member of this congregation, I have never been more optimistic about our future as I am right now. Rabbi Klein and Cantor Schubert are a harmonious, spiritual team providing a true sense of “ruach.” Under the leadership of Director, Stephanie Rubin, her assistant, Debbie Feinstein, along with the preschool’s dedicated staff, our WFTT Preschool Program is thriving and growing. Orly Jacobs and the teachers at our B’Yachad/ESARS Religious School are doing an amazing job in educating our next generation - L’dor v Dor, from Generation to Generation.

Our very experienced and effective Temple Administrator, Michelle Kantor, is always available to troubleshoot, assuring that the day-to-day Temple operation runs smoothly. Our office staff Rebecca Freeman, Susi Wood and our consummate volunteer, Bobbie Zinbarg, are committed to TTE. They work efficiently and effectively and always with a smile, whether on the phone or in person. Sharon Black, our ever-pleasant bookkeeper, does an outstanding job working within all the diverse and myriad parts of our Temple, meeting with preschool parents, congregants, vendors, and others efficiently keeping our finances organized. Our maintenance crew, Beau Paul and Solomon Camille, with their mechanical expertise, provide the tools necessary to assure our building is in good shape and are responsible for the set up and breakdown of all school and Temple activities.

As we turn the page to the coming year, I want to take a moment to thank everyone who volunteered and helped out, especially those who have served as board members or officers. Our members are extremely dedicated and volunteer their time and effort in remarkable ways. During the past year, we have experienced an influx of new members who quickly jumped in to help out. Thank you for giving of yourselves for the betterment of our community. I especially want to thank my Executive Vice President, Margot Banke. Margot’s assistance in assuring that the office and Temple continued to run smoothly has been invaluable. It is my hope that in the future Margot will once again be available for both her sage advice and assistance.

May this coming year be one in which we continue the work and fulfill much of the promise we saw in the past year and may we always experience “Shalom Bayit – Peace in our Temple Home.”

B’shalom,

Gregg Wiston

FROM THE DESK OF RABBI MICHAEL D. KLEIN

I am sending you this message as I, personally, am counting the days when I can walk again without pain. As I count the days toward feeling better, I also have an increased awareness of all those who are experiencing pain and looking forward to recovery. I also am keenly aware that the Jewish people 600,000+ in number must have suffered greatly as they marched from Egypt through the parched Sinai Desert for 49 days until on the 50th day, they were fortunate enough to be witness to the greatest miracle of all-the revelation of G-d's Laws given to Moses on Mount Sinai to share with the world!

Unfortunately, we don't always understand and appreciate the gifts that are given to us each day. At Passover Seder, we had an interesting discussion about why we, in our generation, do not have the same level of belief as in ancient times, because we don't personally witness G-d's miracles as our ancestors did. I responded by saying that each of us has the privilege and responsibility to increase our awareness of simple miracles of life but we must also be an active participant in bringing about the conditions for miracles to occur. Miracles of healing and comfort do not occur passively just as applying our beliefs is not a spectator event. If I wish to heal from surgery, I must actively follow the orders given me by the doctors and physical therapists which enhance the process. Likewise, if we wish to bring about the miracles of Tikun Olam, we must start the healing process within our home by being kind and using kind words and doing kind deeds to our family and then extending these to everyone in our friendship circle and beyond.

May the upcoming holiday of Shavuot serve to increase our own awareness of our role in healing within ourselves and those around us.

Cantor Anita Schubert

Playing the guitar and singing with Cantor Anita Schubert is Hazzan Ken Cohen from Temple Anshei Shalom. This concert was put on by the Southeast Region of the Cantors Assembly to welcome everyone back to synagogues. The concert was held March, 23, 2022.

Thank you Maria!

Dear Clergy, Staff and the Executive Committee.

I am sad to report that Maria Collado has relocated to be closer to her family and has officially retired from Temple Torat Emet.

Her last day was Saturday, March 26th. As you all know, Maria was a tremendous asset to the Temple and our Staff for over 15 years. She will be greatly missed!

Ukraine Relief Efforts

On Sunday, April 3, 2022, congregants from Temple Torat Emet filled their cars (five!) with food and pharmaceuticals to be delivered to Ukraine. This was a moving and inspirational experience and a wonderful volunteer opportunity for those who participated as part of National Good Deeds Day. This collection was in partnership with St Nicholas Ukrainian Orthodox Church. Thank you to all who donated and participated in the collection!

If you have a Yahrzeit and need a minyan, please call the office at 561-369-1112.

Please consider supporting our daily minyans, both morning and evening, by attending a few times a month, either in-person or on Zoom. Your participation and support are critical in helping to assure that our temple minyans will continue.

Rabbi Michael Klein

WOW! We had a super Purim celebration in March and it was so terrific to celebrate Passover with our families and friends in April. Now here we are speeding on to our next holiday, Lag B'Omer – May 19th. Watch your weekly e-blasts for details on these programs!

Have you signed up to be a minyanaire yet? We need your help! Every day there are people in the community (ours at TTE and the geographically larger one) who have a Yahrzeit and need to say Kaddish. We want to be there for them... we have been there for them...we WILL be there for them! The minyan is Sunday through Friday, at 8:30 am and 5:00 pm. For your convenience, it is a hybrid minyan in person and on Zoom (146 777 953 password 5780)

Shavuot is coming – Sunday, June 5th, and Monday, June 6th. Call for the cheesecake! We will be kicking off the holiday on Saturday night, June 4th with a Tikun Leyl Shavuot; it'll be in our building (and streaming) and the community is invited! Yes...Do tell your friends! Rabbi Klein has invited local area Rabbis and their congregations to join us. Our study session will include perspectives from all the Rabbis and a chance to provide questions and have a dialogue on the topics. Again, check your weekly eblasts for the times that each segment of the program will occur.

As the weather warms up it is time to go to cooler areas for Shabbat services, rather than the lawn. To that end, it is time for the return of SHABBAT ON THE BEACH! (Oceanfront Beach in Boynton Beach on A1A). For those of you who have not experienced this, it is an evening filled with song, ruach, and food. The services are held on the boardwalk, which is very accessible from the parking lot. We are also under a pavilion overhang. We provide challah, grape juice, books, and percussion instruments; you bring a beach chair (if you want, but there are tables to sit at) and a picnic dinner – if you want to eat at the beach. Services start at 6:00 pm. Here are the dates: May 20th, June 24th, July 15th and August 12 *(All dates are subject to change) In case of inclement weather, services will be called off and you can check with Kathy Porges at (561) 613-5305 at 5:00 PM.

See you at the beach! (And, of course in shul for Shabbat.)

Shabbat on the Lawn Friday night services featured the SWAT (Shabbat with a Twist) Band. Chani Kolan, the Jewish Federation Shlichah, addressed the attendees. Look for notifications of upcoming Friday evening Shabbat on the Lawn and Shabbat on the Beach services.

During Shabbat morning services, we honored new members who joined within the last year; following services, we enjoyed a kiddush on the lawn.

On Sunday morning, prospective members were greeted by Rabbi Klein, Cantor Schubert, office staff, Religious School, Torah Tots staff, and representatives of the synagogue board and arms. They witnessed Men's Club in action as they packed Yom Hashoah yellow candles.

The Men's Club also arranged for a blood mobile.

The Judaica Gift Shop was open, and we featured our own Lori Charnow's Art by Leah.

Special thanks to all who helped to make this weekend a success.

Our next Open House will be held in August.

Profiles

Sam Kessler

Do you ever wonder about the person sitting next to you during Shabbat Services? The same person you greet each week with a warm hello, a heartfelt "Shabbat Shalom," and perhaps a handshake or hug? Each person is truly a living piece of history, and we want you to know a little bit more about who they are behind that smile.

We have created this Tekiah Column as a way of introducing you to that unknown friendly congregant. In this series, we plan to highlight amazing congregants, each one with their own fascinating story to tell.

When Sam Kessler saw the D-Day epic "The Longest Day" in 1962, he thought he was looking at an excerpt from his own white-knuckle moment. Actor Red Buttons' Army paratrooper character could only stare helplessly at the unfolding drama below when his chute snagged on the steeple of a French church during the storied airdrop behind German lines in June 1944. The exact same thing had happened to Kessler seven months later.

At mid-morning on Feb. 20, 1945, radio operator Kessler bailed out of his doomed B-24 bomber. Sam recalls, "One day on my way to bomb munitions factories in Nuremberg, the weather was terrible, then the pilot realized something was wrong and he ordered us to put our parachutes on. He started ordering the gunners to bail out. Me? I'm going, 'SOS, SOS.' And he says, 'get out,' he couldn't come with me because he had to steer the plane. And that's the last I saw of him."

"Hundreds" of villagers watched as he drifted to earth and was caught on the spire of a cathedral, where he broke some ribs and a shoulder. Not knowing where he'd landed, suspended in the rigging, Kessler "silently said the traditional Jewish mourner's kaddish" and waited.

"Suddenly," he recalls, "a trap door at the side of the steeple opened, and out came a man with a rifle and another to hold the ladder. He climbed up with the rifle, pointed at my chest, and said 'Bist du Deutsch?' And I said 'Nein, Ich bin Americanish,' I understood German. And I pointed at my insignia. He did not pull the trigger."

Kessler caught a break; he had landed in liberated Belgium. Exactly where, he still can't say for sure. But Kessler would return safely to England, participate in more bombing runs against the Nazis, get his discharge from the Army Air Corps, and pursue a career as an entrepreneur in New York.

He never saw his crewmates after the disaster over Belgium. What he knew was that three had gone down with the plane, nicknamed the "Pale Ale," and that six others had survived

In the recent past, Sam was honored by the government of France with its highest decoration, the medal of the French Legion of Honor, for his heroic actions and extraordinary accomplishments helping liberate France during World War II.

Additionally, in January 2018, Sam was honored at a Florida Panthers game, proudly wearing a Panthers jersey with his fighter pilot jacket over it, and his family by his side. While being honored, every person in the BB&T Center (FLA Live Arena) stood, applauded, and paid tribute to this proud veteran.

We all applaud you for your heroism and service, Sam Kessler!

B'YACHAD RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

Schools out for the summer!! Well almost. By the time this article reaches your "inbox", we will have successfully completed our hybrid Religious School year. Even though we had our doubts and concerns regarding this concept, it was a success. Our weekday students had the choice of in-person or virtual Hebrew education; and all students were on site for the Sunday School component. As in the years past, we shared and utilized both TBT and TTE campuses on Sundays as well as sharing spaces for our in-person programs. Throughout the year, we kept in contact with everyone and shared weekly synopsis with you so you could be a part of your child's education. We hope that you enjoyed reading them and were encouraged by all that they were learning. We began, and continued our year, with new ideas, concepts and activities, keeping the interests of our students and families of utmost importance, and we changed our approach as the times were changing. For many of our students, this was their first year in person and first year of Hebrew language learning. They were successful with both.

As the year progressed, our students were able to have opportunities to share in school-wide programs, such as our Hanukkah, Tu B' Shevat, Purim and Passover experiences. We participated in a beautiful family Butterfly Program, where our families were able to commemorate the children lost in the Holocaust by painting beautiful butterflies that will be a part of a permanent Remembrance Garden at Temple Beth Tikvah. And we were able to once again bring back our Kabbalat Siddur Program in person for our 2nd and 3rd-grade students. This program provided an opportunity for our families to experience a milestone in their children's lives as they received their first siddur to commemorate the next step of their journey in Jewish education. Our year ended with our traditional end of the year closing program, where not only did our 7th grade students continue our tradition of sharing their personal thoughts about their Religious School experience, but all our classes were able to share their "year in review" with parents, grandparents and congregants. Needless to say, I am pleased with our educational year. I want to thank our remarkable staff for all their hard work and dedication in making this year a success (during these ever-changing times), but also the BOD's from both TBT and TTE for their support and dedication to making this joint venture the success it is, and of course our parents for sharing their beautiful children with us and allowing us to be a part of their "Jewish Journey". We look forward to many more years of continued success and sharing our love of Judaism with each and every child that is a part of the B'Yachad Program. Please enjoy the pictures below of the activities and programs our students participated in throughout the year. We wish you all a wonderful summer. Be safe, be happy, and enjoy all that you do. Please be on the lookout for registration forms and calendars to be sent to you during the summer months. AND don't forget to share the best kept secret in Western Palm Beach County. B'Yachad, we can bring the love of Jewish education to many children in the community.

SISTERHOOD

According to the secular calendar, we are at the end of the Sisterhood year. In reality, there is no end of the year for the Sisterhood. Our work will continue over the summer. The Judaica Gift Shop will be open by appointment, Simcha Grams will be sent out, trees and water conservation certificates will be available. Your Officers and Vice Presidents will be busy planning our events, contacting new and existing members, and encouraging members to contribute to Torah Fund.

I want to thank the board members who made this past year so successful. A great big thank you goes to Tova and Barry Adesnik for their dedication to the Judaica Shop. Because of their commitment, we were able to fulfill our pledge to the Temple and even have some funds left over to use for next year's activities. I think we will have to make Barry an honorary member of Sisterhood. A special thank you goes to Ruth Jatkoff who always had my back. She was such an inspiration as she learned how to get us on Zoom and in her own gentle way, remind me about things I needed to do as President. My thanks goes to Sheila Avruch and Susan Boxerman for keeping Simcha Grams going during the pandemic. Many thanks go to Margot Banke, Beryl Goldberg, and Zeta Sudler for managing the member lists, data bases and our budget. Ellen Grynspan always had a meaningful D'Var Torah at our board meetings and Debbie Pransky kept us up to date on Israeli innovations. The Torah Fund Campaign continued under the watchful care of Harriet Harris. Even in this difficult time, we managed to raise funds for the Conservative/Masorti Seminaries. Thank you, Harriet. Tova Adesnik and Marilyn Cohen deserve our praise for the beautiful Sisterhood Shabbat service that they organized and ran on Women's League Shabbat.

Jeanette Schneider used her knowledge and creativity to provide us with wonderful flyers that included all the details. Thank you Jeanette. And what fabulous programs they were! Gail Hare, who became a good friend this year, made all the calls and arrangements for our events and programs. This year we "visited" Kahila Kadasha Janina, a Romaniote Synagogue in New York, had some fun with A Bintel Brief, and learned about Dr. Ruth and Judge Judy. We "went" to the Jewish Museum in Miami to see the Judith Lieber exhibit and we "toured" the Museum of Southern Jewish Experience in New Orleans. At our Torah Fund Event, we were taught by Samuel Vingron, a Rabbinic student at JTS. He "Zoomed" on to our site from Jerusalem. Our joint meeting with Men's Club featured the author of The History of Jews in Florida. Rose Feinberg came back to share her knowledge of Three Singing Jewish Women: Bette Midler, Carole King, and Barbra Streisand. Our last program of the year will feature our very own Cantor Anita Schubert who will share her story and sing with us in person in the Temple. I can't thank Gail enough for ensuring that we had an interesting variety of programs on Zoom.

To Bonnie Geltner, Cynthia Gordon, Joan Feuerstein, Lorraine Arcus, Malka Benoff, Bonnie Dassa and Gloria Shanken, thank you for serving on the board, providing support and attending meetings when you could.

It gives me great pleasure to announce your incoming Sisterhood Board for 2022-2023.

A YARD SALE IS COMING TO TTE!

Fall of 2022

Do you have “stuff” that you’d like to get rid of, but you live in an HOA community - where yard or garage sales are prohibited?

Do not fret! Temple Torat Emet has a deal for you! We are planning an old-fashioned yard sale! Not only that, but now that Covid 19 is subsiding, we’re also planning a boutique, a raffle sale, snacks, and more, all on the same day!

We have made one decision, though: We’d like to maximize the number of participants. Therefore, this function will take place when the Snowbirds are back in town, so we’re looking for a date in the Fall. We’ll notify you as soon as we settle on a date. Please plan to attend. Better yet, won’t you help your Temple out and volunteer? You won’t be sorry! This function is going to bring most, if not all, of your friends and neighbors to Temple Torat Emet. This will be a huge Fundraiser!

In the meantime, though, you can identify those “gently used” items, be they clothing, knickknacks, or furniture you’d like to get rid of, and save them for our yard sale. You will have a chance to sell your possessions, and/or donate them. (Details will follow.)

Remember: One person’s junk is often another person’s treasure!

A committee is forming to plan the event. Andrea Wallet has graciously agreed to chair the Fundraiser. She needs volunteers, though! Interested in helping out?

Please contact Andrea at (561) 336 - 3188, or at: awallet1228@gmail.com.

You may also contact me, Malka Benoff, at (561) 733 - 7963, or at: (703) 203 - 8083, e-mail: artbymalka@gmail.com

Purim 2022

Hannah Plotkin, Chair

Our Shalach Manot Fundraiser was a great success this year! More members than ever joined in to participate. We hope all of you enjoyed getting either a basket (bag) or a card as we tried to reach every single one of you this year, as well as the entire staff, including the staff of the Religious School, and Torah Tots. A special thank you to our two very generous donors who helped make this possible. Thank you to my team who helped in different aspects of this congregation-wide venture: Susan and Stuart Boxerman spent long hours inputting orders, and Sharon Lynne organized pick-ups and deliveries. Ellen Grynspan, Anita Schick, Ruth Jatkoff, Beryl Goldberg, Marilyn Cohen, Lois Gordon, Janet Skulnick, and Lorraine Arcus helped pack our baskets, greet pick-up arrivals, make phone calls, and sort out our card mailings. Our volunteers reported on how thrilled some new members and those never involved were to learn we had baskets waiting for them to pick up!

The true and beautiful mitzvah, however, was in the giving. I thank all of you who thought of others and those who helped deliver baskets in their communities. Especially touching were those who delivered to our congregants who are not able to come in on their own. In these sobering times we are living through, a Yasher Koach to everyone who helped to spread a bit of Purim joy!

ADULT JEWISH LEARNING COLLABORATION

Dear Friends,

Another Year for the Adult Jewish Education Learning Collaborative (ADJLC) has passed

We had a difficult year with the extension of Covid restrictions at a time when we thought we could meet in person; learning, sharing, and questioning, not only the presenters but also our neighbors.

We wish to thank all the presenters and team members for their help during this initial year of an all-volunteer administration.

KUDOS to Alan Schoen, who will be taking a sabbatical from our committee for 5783 and will return to the committee in 5784. His seat is ready for participation in 5784.

Looking forward to 5783 our goals include:

- increasing our registration with programs not previously in the repertoire
- on-site learning
- coffee and conversation sessions
- participation in the Melton Program.

For the TTE Adult Education Committee

Sharon Cadoff, Dr. David Schick, Alan Schoen, Janet Skolnick,

WISTON FAMILY TORAH TOTS

Dear Torah Tot Families,

Our TT teachers lovingly welcomed our children back to school from Passover break. The reunions in the classrooms between the children with their friends and teachers were heart tugging beautiful. How is the school year almost over! This time of year always brings reflection and reminiscing as we prepare for the children to advance to the next age level, particularly the Pre-K children graduating and moving on to Kindergarten! "Time flies when you have children" . It's true; what seems like lifetime at first for all parents will soon become a moment you wished they were little again! So, as veteran parents keep telling us, enjoy it and cherish every moment of being a parent as it goes so fast. While in the throes of balancing things like diapers and snacks, loading kids in and out of car seats, managing moods, tantrums, fatigue, and chasing toddlers non-stop, it may seem impossible to truly enjoy it. Everyone constantly needs something! What was hard to realize then is that those moms of older children, were right. The long tiresome days fly by at lighting speed, even the longest days. Truth is, what is universal as your kids get older is perspective. "The days are long but the years fly by so enjoy it". We don't really understand that- until we do.

JOIN US FOR - OUR UPCOMING CONGREGATIONAL MEETING

on Tuesday, May 24, 2022, at 7:00 PM

This year, our Annual Congregational Meeting of Temple Torat Emet will be held on Tuesday, May 24, 2022, at 7:00 PM. The meeting will be in person with the option to view it on Zoom or Streaming. The two items on the agenda will be the election of the Board of Directors and Officers for the upcoming year, and the presentation and approval of the 2022-2023 budget.

These meetings are important and necessary to the management of our synagogue, and we ask that you mark your calendars and plan to attend if at all possible. As with all congregational meetings, we will be unable to conduct any business without having a quorum present at the meeting. Your vote is important; however, you must be a member in good standing.

In order to allow the proper flow of information to all, the complete budget for the fiscal year 2022-2023 will be available in the synagogue office for the week prior to the budget meeting beginning on May 18, 2022. The proposed slate is as follows:
